

Summer Club Participant Agreement 2012

At PPC events, all participating PPC Club members must recognize and agree to the following:

- Summer Club is a casual club outing with no one designated individual responsible for safety or instruction on the water. There is no “duty of care” between the Club Leader and participating members. Club Leaders do have the authority to enforce judgment.
- Participants must be completely responsible for their actions and safety on and off the water.
- Manage themselves according to their own limitations including skills, training, experience, medical background, physical fitness, emotional preparedness, etc.
- Respect judgment, guidance, and decisions of Club Leaders (and act accordingly). I.e. Decisions around weather, safety, group management, locations, time and distance of paddles, etc.
- Follow all PPC policy and procedures including all ensuring all paperwork is complete, fees are paid in full, and all pre-requisites are met.
- Must wear a PFD at all times on the water.
- If renting / using / borrowing club gear, members are responsible for care of equipment and in the case of damage or loss, members must make full repair or replacement, at their own cost.
- Be responsible to the group for contributing to good Risk Management by taking steps to identify, measure, and control risks at all times. This involves spending time thinking about potentially risky situations, deciding which situations might pose serious risks, and determining what steps to take to minimize those risks. The common ingredients in all these tasks is common sense and reasonable actions.
- Be responsible for all club equipment signed out in their name as well as the safe transport of said equipment to and from the paddling site.
- Be responsible for safe transport of self, to and from site.
- Follow, to the best of their ability, Leave No Trace environmental ethics and standards of practice while participating in PPC events.
- Clean and dry equipment and store properly in the PPC equipment building at the end of each session
- By participating in PPC events agree to not hold any PPC board members, representatives, instructors, club leaders, volunteers, or other members accountable or liable. This includes all terms and conditions as outlined in the PARKLAND PADDLING CLUB Inc. -ASSUMPTION OF RISK, WAIVER AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY AND CLAIMS

If participants fail to comply with the above conditions and agreements, participation in Summer Club and PPC Club membership may be limited or terminated, with no fee refunds.

Name _____

Witness _____

Signature _____

Signature _____

Date _____